COWS SHOULD BE EXAMINED AT ONCE

THAT IS THE OPINION OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

An Instance of the Prevalence of Tuberculosis in Cattle Related by Dr. Paine—Board Proposes to Prevent the Use of Open Streams for Sewers—Interesting Report from Health Officer W. E. Allen—The Other Reports That Were Read to the Board.

Dr. Paine introduced at last night's meeting of the board of health the subject of tuberculosis in cattle and urged the necessity of an examination of the herds that supply milk to the Scranton Dairy company. All the members agreed that it is a vital question and Secretary Murray was instructed to notify every milk dealer, both great and small, of the views of the board in this respect.

Not many weeks ago the herd of milk cows at the Hillside Home was examined and out of fifty-five, the number that had to be slain was sixteen. One cow particularly looked to be in the pink of condition, yet a large tubercle was found in its lungs. The state pays from $10 to $25 for every cow put to death because of this disease, but at the present time the appropriation is about exhausted.

The members of the board were astounded at a statement made by Secretary Murray that out of the 104 births last month as many as ninety of the cases were attended by midwives. This statement was made in relation to a case occurring within the past month. A midwife attended the birth of a child that lived but a day or two and when it came to making out a death certificate, which is necessary before the funeral can take place, the woman could not give the cause of death, for the reason that she is not a physician. It was found necessary to have Dr. Longstrech in on duty as coroner to investigate the case and make out a certificate. Such cases are not infrequent. The matter was left over for a future meeting.

NEED OF A SEWER.

Dr. Allen and Attorney George S. Horn were appointed a committee to confer with City Solicitor Medinley on the subject of compelling property owners to connect with the sewer where such can be conveniently done, instead of dumping their refuse into an open stream, as is alleged to be the case among several families in Providence. Dr. Allen said he had been informed that the stream coming down from Forest Hill cemetery and running through Green Ridge is used as a sewer by some of the residents adjacent to it. The doctor and Captain Burke will look into the case.

Much of the unsanitary conditions arise from ungraded streets and lack of sewerage. If the board could compel improvements to be made wherever danger to health exists from present conditions things would be different. The board can only recommend to councils and wait upon the action of that body.

Health Officer Allen's report was as follows: Ninety-eight nuisances were reported during September, of which were abated except those caused by ungraded streets and the wants of sewers. In the 1500 block on Penn avenue, between Larch and New York street, there is stagnant water, which is unquestionably a nuisance. The water from upper Larch street, in fact from all the hillside above—follows a natural water course and through several obstructions, is dammed up, causing pools to be formed in that locality. The attention of the board has frequently been called to this place, and I believe a sewer has been ordered. A pipe drain across New York street would relieve the present trouble. At the corner of Ash street there is a great cause of complaint. The street is not graded, and I respectfully ask that the board request councils to order the street graded. The trouble can then be easily remedied.

THE HUCKSTERS.

"People living on Millin avenue complain of the refuse from hucksters' wagons. As these men were given the privilege of using this street as a market place there should be some one to see that the street is kept in proper condition. The need of a public market is more apparent every year, and I think that the board of health should not cease to urge the necessity of a market upon the councils.

"The properties of Shetter, Gillespie, McKean and others previously complained of are still not connected with the sewers and are draining into the open ditch. I would be glad to receive definite instructions from the board on this matter. The property on Elm street, east of the Delaware and Hudson railroad, the streets and vacant lots are in an execrable condition and will be until the long delayed sewer is completed. Complaint was made to the board of a poisoned well on Keyser avenue. Investigation disclosed the fact that the people have been using water from the well in which a few days ago the decomposed body of a baby was accidentally discovered. The owners were notified to fill up the well. None of the people using the water had developed any disease so far. Diluted cannibalism does not seem to have had any very malignant effects yet."

Food Inspector Allen's report was that he made 615 store and market inspections, 212 milk inspections with the lactometer and 46 tests with the Babcock system. During the month he destroyed 338 pounds of beef, 308 pounds of mutton, 58 pounds of veal, 39 pounds of sausage, 1067 pounds of fish, 13 bushels of apples, 188 baskets of muskmelons, 21 baskets of tomatoes, 2 baskets of cucumbers, 42 of peaches, 37 of pears, 6 bunches of bananas, 299 watermelons, 3 barrels of cabbage and 2 dead hogs.

D. O. Thomas, superintendent of the crematory, reported that 654 barrels of

MANY SIGNED THE PLEDGE.

Fifth Lecture of Mr. McConnell Full of Interest.

Last night Will J. McConnell gave the fifth lecture of the series in Green Ridge Baptist church. The audience was large and much interest was manifested in the exercises. The subject of Mr. McConnell's address was "Common Sense Christianity." The singing was led by Mrs. Clara Jackson. Quite a number of men signed the pledge.

The ladies of the Women's Christian Temperance union are much encouraged with the outcome of the work and will doubtless continue the meetings as long as the people continue to manifest interest. Tonight Mr. McConnell's subject is "Hammers and Anvils."

garbage were consumed in 12 tons. The amount of coal burned was 13 tons. This report was for the period from September 19 to the end of the month. Secretary Murray's report showed that 133 deaths occurred during September. Of these 100 died from sickness and 13 from accident. The number of births were 104, of which 50 were males and 54 were females. The number of contagious diseases reported were 44, of which 32 were diphtheria. The number of marriages was 29.

Plumbing Inspector O'Malley's report was that 29 water tests, and 4 re-inspections were made. He approved 13 sets of plans and made 20 visits to buildings in course of construction.

JUDGE WILL FIGHT AGAIN

Anxious for Another Debate With Mysterious Billy Smith, But Wants No Hitting in the Clinches—Skelly's Opinion.

Jack Skelly, manager of the American Sporting club, called at the Tribune office last night and stated that he has $1,000 to post for another twenty-round match between Jim Judge and "Mysterious" Billy Smith. He will go to New York today armed with a certified check for that amount and will bring about another debate between the man of the awe-inspiring label and the defeated but no dismayed Jimmy. If Smith will agree to box without hitting in the clinches, and also to find some other referee besides Sam Austin, Skelly scornfully and contemptuously disavowed the stories that are current about Judge's physical condition. Some said that Judge is sure to decline into Bright's disease from the tapping he got in the vicinity of the kidneys. Skelly said that the punishment was in no danger of doing any such thing, as if nothing happened.

But of one thing Skelly is confident. He will bet his boots that Judge can best Smith in a twenty-round bout with hitting in the clinches barred. Hitting with one arm free is a bull-dog style of fighting. It is not boxing, nor is it scientific. It is an exhibition of pure and unadulterated brute strength.

Skelly says he has had to do with over 1,000 men in the business during his time and he considers Judge the best man of them all. His ability to stand up twenty rounds and take the amount of blows he got without showing the effect any more than he did was more than any other man Skelly ever saw could do.

FUNERAL OF JUDGE BENNETT.

Remains Laid at Rest in Hollenback Cemetery.

The funeral of the late Judge Lyman Bennett at Wilkes-Barre yesterday afternoon was attended by a very representative gathering of men prominent in all walks of life. Among the friends who gathered at the residence on Carver avenue, the members of the legal fraternity were conspicuous, there being quite a large representation from the Bar association. The remains were viewed by hundreds. The expression of the countenance was but little changed from that of life. About the casket was banked a wealth of beautiful floral tributes.

At 2 o'clock the services were begun. They were conducted by Rev. Dr. F. B. Hodges, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and Rev. R. B. Webster, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church. The latter delivered a most appropriate sermon, in which he expounded a beautiful eulogy to the life of the deceased.

The quartette of the First Presbyterian church, composed of Mrs. Fred denberger, Miss Nettie Munyan, Fred Smith and Richard Williams impressively sang several appropriate selections.

DEATH OF JAMES P. HOSIE.

Well-Known Coal Operator Passed Away After a Short Illness.

James P. Hosie died at 7 o'clock last evening at his home, 1535 Sanderson avenue. News of his death will be a shock to the business community and to the great number of friends. His sickness was of less than a week, and not even his intimate friends knew it was anything more than a temporary indisposition. Since Sunday, however, his recovery was looked upon as doubtful.

Mr. Hosie was upwards of 50 years of age. He was identified with coal mining interests since entering upon his business career and was a well-known operator and developer of coal tracts. He was associated with several coal companies up and down the valley.

In his habits he was essentially an energetic and assiduous man of business. The surge of public life had no attraction for him, and he lived in an unassuming way and was always close to his home and family.

His wife and two daughters, 11 and 8 years old respectively, are his survivors, besides his two sisters, Miss Helen Hosie and Mrs. Price, wife of Attorney S. B. Price. Both sisters are ill and it is feared his death will prove a very injurious shock to them.

SO STATES CORPORAL RAFTER, WHO IS AT PORTO RICO.

Mausier Rifles Bring Twenty Dollars and Machetes One Dollar and Twenty-five Cents—Mausier Bullets and Spanish Bullets Are Plentiful and Cheap—Scranton Contingent of the Engineers Appear to Be Contented With Their Lot—Sad Plight of the Volunteers.

G. P. Danforth, of this city, has received a letter from Corporal W. E. Rafter, of this city, who is with Company I, First regiment of United States Volunteer Engineers, now at Ponce, Porto Rico, of which the following is a part:

"In regard to Mausier rifles and machetes we state that the rifles are all in charge of the United States regulars and it is an utter impossibility to procure one for less than $20 and then the officers have first chance. The machetes are $1.25, but have never seen any service, so on that point as a curiosity they are weak. About the only curios here of any value are native slippers and jugs, and they sell rare and novel canes from $1 up, Spanish money. It would afford me great pleasure to accommodate you in your request, but I have given you straight facts.

"There are some nice old oil paintings from $2 Spanish up. If there is anything you would like from here, let me know and I will try and accommodate you. I can secure Mausier bullets and Spanish buttons in any amount for five cents each. I have a position here which keeps me very busy all day; in fact, I am only off on Sunday half a day. I have charge of twenty natives and I superintend the unloading of cargoes, etc. I am engaged this week in weighing off the cargo of jerked beef captured on the Ventura, a Spanish ship, at the opening of hostilities.

"The Scranton boys seem to be all satisfied with their lot. The volunteers that left for home from this port were a sight. Talk about rag-muffins, they were not in it for get-ups. None of them were shaved for six weeks, their blue uniforms had turned green, shoes worn out and every part of their equipment dilapidated. We have an elegant location on the dock and are living in the best possible manner, most of the time on board the steamers.

"The scenery here is grand and the climate delightful. I only wish I had a Kodak. I could snap some of the finest views ever taken."

COSGROVE LOST HIS PURSE.

It Was Found by a Peanut Vender and Returned to Him.

Thomas Cosgrove, of the West Side, lost his pocketbook yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock on Spruce street, and afterwards it was picked up by the Italian who runs the peanut stand at the corner of Wyoming avenue and Center street. He turned it over to Patrolman Peters, who in turn gave it to Chief Gurrill.

Mr. Cosgrove described what the purse contained and secured it at police headquarters. The amount of money was less than $10.
